Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Master Sergeant Roger M. Flint's dedication to service has made him a valuable asset to this state and country; and,

Whereas, We have very few occasions to recognize these patriotic individuals for their service to this state and country; and,

Whereas, Master Sergeant Flint has devoted over 34 years of his life to the service of this state and country as a track vehicle mechanic, cannoneer, and gunner in Battery C Co (-) 2nd Battalion 147th Field Artillery, heavy vehicle driver in the 740th Transportation Company, Platoon Sergeant in the 727th Transportation Company, highway operations Sergeant in the 152nd Combat Sustainment Support Battalion, and senior truckmaster in the 1742nd Transportation Company in the South Dakota Army National Guard; and,

Whereas, His loyalty and leadership have made him a cornerstone in the Armed Forces of this country; and,

Whereas, Master Sergeant Flint continues to give of himself; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to commend Master Sergeant Roger M. Flint for over 34 years of dedicated and outstanding service to this state and country:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 11, 2013, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends in wishing him well in his retirement and thanking him for his service to the state of South Dakota and to the United States of America.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixth Day of August in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Thirteen.

Dennis Daugaard, Governor

Attest:

Jason M. Gant, Secretary of State
